"What is Reformation Sunday?" This is a great question asked by people of all ages and faiths. Janet Mulrone Clark offers the following explanation in her article "What Is the Meaning of Reformation Sunday?" found at www.classroom.synonym.com.

For Lutherans and many other Protestants in America, the last Sunday in October is celebrated as Reformation Sunday. Reformation Sunday honors Martin Luther's bold action on October 31st, 1517. On that date Luther posted his statement of faith, known as the 95 Theses, on the door of Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany, thus beginning the Protestant Reformation. In some parts of Europe, Reformation Day is a civil holiday celebrated on October 31st, a day to commemorate the vast social and political change that resulted from Luther's actions.

Who was Martin Luther?

Martin Luther, born in 1483 in Eisleben, Germany, to a devout Catholic family, was a scholarly, serious man. He attended the university in Erfurt and studied the law, but instead of working as a lawyer, he entered an Augustinian monastery and was ordained as a monk in 1507. Luther was tortured by his fear of hell, which drove him to endless good works and acts of piety, as well as self-flagellation and other acts of penance, such as lying in the snow for long periods of time on winter nights. Through reading the Bible, however, Luther came to believe people were saved not by good works or acts of penance, but through their faith in Jesus Christ.

Papal Indulgences and Other Issues

Luther was troubled by the corruption of the Roman Catholic Church, especially the selling of indulgences. The Catholic church sold papal indulgences which they claimed would eliminate the need for acts of penance in this life and in the hereafter. He was especially bothered by the sale of jubilee indulgences, which Pope Leo X sold, in part to pay for St. Peter's Cathedral. Luther became increasingly convinced that salvation came through faith alone, not works.

The 95 Theses

Martin Luther was a professor of theology. He was a monk and a devout Catholic with no intentions of starting a new church. He did, however, want to reform the church, and with that goal in mind, Luther wrote the 95 Theses, which detailed his objections to the selling of indulgences and its effect upon the people. He posted them on the door of the church because that was a common place for posting public notices. Within weeks, however, word of the theses had spread. Consequently, Luther was viewed by the church as a heretic, threatened with burning at the stake, and excommunicated by Pope Leo in 1520. Many theologians agreed with Luther, however, and the Protestant Reformation began.

Reformation Sunday Today

Reformation Sunday in the United States is celebrated as a day to honor the root beliefs of Protestant Christianity: that faith in Christ is all that's needed for salvation, and the Bible, not any human leader, is the true authority in matters of faith. As Luther said when questioned about his views, "Unless I am convinced by Scripture and plain reason -- I do not accept the authority of the popes and councils, for they have contradicted each other -- my conscience is captive to the word of God. I cannot and I will not recant anything for to go against conscience is neither right nor safe. God help me. Amen."

I am grateful to Luther and all of the Christian reformers who sacrificed so much to bring about the changes in the church that needed to happen so that people could grow in faith and learn about God, who is to be feared, but is also a God of love and grace. As we move forward in this time of post-Christendom, recognizing the scary reality that our church needs to re-form once again to continue to proclaim the Gospel, it is good for us to be reminded this movement is part of our history. Thank you for journeying with me during this difficult time.

“Called to Be Political - But I Don’t Want to Be Political ” Part 2

Like it or not, Christians are called to be political. This resource explores that call, looking at personal reflections of Lutheran women, the Bible and the writings of Martin Luther. Fears or questions about our church’s involvement in politics may reflect a misunderstanding of how Christians, and especially Lutheran Christians, are called to participate in the political arena.

We will continue our discussion from last month as we work through the last part of the study. Don’t worry if you weren’t able to join us in September. You can still join in the conversation this month. Printed copies of the resource are available at the church. Please contact Josie at 605-225-4662 or osl@mt-rushmore.net if you would like a copy mailed or emailed to you. Pastor Deb highly encourages everyone to read through the study ahead of time so we have more time for discussion.

OUR PURPOSE STATEMENT

Financial Update

The Holy Spirit is alive and well and keeping this congregation busy and blessed during September. D.O.G. Night started again which means the building and grounds are hopping on Wednesday nights. An inflatable maze helped make the first night of classes much more fun (and chaotic). Pastor Deb was kept hopping (along with those around her) with visits, planning of multiple events, phone calls and Fall Theological Conference. The congregation gathered for worship, fellowship and meals as we worked together and began Potluck Sundays once again. We began August with $31,478.24 in our checking/savings accounts. Our income from January - August 2021 was $76,784.49 compared to $73,459.80 in 2020. Our expenses from January - August 2021 totaled $75,513.44 compared to $80,965.80 during the same time period in 2020. Pastor Deb and the Church Council are so appreciative how generous many in the congregation have been with their financial giving. Because of your generosity, we continue to fully fund all of our ministries as we do the work to which we have been called. If you would like more detailed information on OSL financial mission plan, please contact Mike at 605-858-3402 or treasurerslhermosa@gmail.com. Thank you for your continued financial support!

Mission Of The Month

PINE RIDGE ENERGY ASSISTANCE MATCHING FUND PROGRAM

The Energy Assistance Matching Fund is exactly what the title says. If someone on the Pine Ridge Reservation is in need of assistance with energy bills, they can apply at the Pine Ridge Reconciliation Center for matching funds. This means whatever money they have available to put towards their energy bill can be matched with money from the fund if funds are available and the criteria are met. The matching funds are sent directly to energy company to ensure they are used to pay the energy bill. If you would like to financially support this fund, place your contribution in the Globe offering or in the offering plate. Donations for the Mission of the Month can also be made online through Tithley. Checks can be made out to OSL with "Mission" in the memo line. Thank you for being a blessing in helping others stay warm this winter.
